

Deputy Police and Crime Commissioner for Wiltshire and Swindon

Remuneration: £18,000 + expenses

Hours: Two days per week (the post holder is expected to work flexibly and outside standard working hours.)

Contract: Fixed term, for the duration of PCC's term of office, ends May 2020

This is a unique and exciting opportunity to support the Wiltshire and Swindon Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) as his Deputy PCC. The successful candidate will be politically aware and astute and be able to provide strategic advice and insight. They will support the PCC in his role as the bridge between the public and their police. You will be prepared to travel the length and breadth of Wiltshire and Swindon acting as the PCC's representative. This role will involve engagement with local people and partners, while also building and strengthening public confidence.

We need the Deputy PCC to:

- Seek and represent the views and concerns of the people of Wiltshire and Swindon through a range of means, including attending relevant meetings on behalf of the PCC.
- Report back to the people of Wiltshire and Swindon on behalf of the PCC.
- Develop and promote effective working relationships with key internal and external stakeholders, including local and national media, strategic partners and politicians, in order to further the aims and objectives of the PCC.
- Hold portfolios of work as required by the PCC.
- Support the Commissioner, as required, including summarising and briefing the PCC on these issues.
- Assist the PCC in holding the Chief Constable to account.
- Support the PCC with the development and shape of the future strategy.

The PCC is an equal opportunities employer and welcomes applications from all sections of the community. This post is a political appointment, and as such, candidates are expected to share Angus Macpherson's vision and values.
