BUILDING & AMENITY PRIORITIES

10.
  - TENNIS CLUB
    - Tennis Club representative to update Committee
    - Clerks update- the proposed defibrillator and funding. The location would be the outside of the pavilion wall for use for all visitors to the Rec field. Match funding by CPC suggested so that the club can apply for grants where match funding is required.
11. PAVILION

Note – club members have re-pointed and painted the brick work at the lower front of the pavilion compound. An excellent job done.

ALLOTMENTS

12. Bonfires complaint from resident. See additional information

REC HALL, GROUND & CAR PARK

13.
  - Feedback from Mr P Walton on rolling of new carpark area. See additional information
Discussion & Vote on any further action.
September - Cllr Rawlings to provide 2 further quotes for this work.
14.
  - Review leak situation at Rec Hall. STORM have been asked for further feedback in regards to their quote from June.
September Update – the original quote from STORM is still applicable. The leak is coming from the water heater overflow from the gents toilets which is still installed and working. They cannot see any leak arising from the roof. Quote for repairs is £125.00 plus VAT
“Replace Faulty PRV and temp. relief. Cost is inclusive of initial call out.”
15.
  - Discuss & approve costs for sign at end of Norris Close track (where it joins Norris Close) to reduce speed on Norris Close Approx 40 for sign, plus pole and installation costs. See additional information
Also 30mph bin stickers £6.00 for 6.
Both initiatives recommended by SBC.
