

National
Trust

National Trust Avebury: What's on September & October 2022

Our core visitor offer:

Avebury Manor

Step back in time with a visit to the manor, where each room is furnished in a different time period, reflecting the lives of the people who have lived here for the last 500 years.

Henge and stone circles

Why not take a guided tour around the largest stone circle in the world? Our expert guides can tell you all about the people who built it. The tour takes around an hour.

Alexander Keiller Museum

Find out all about the archaeology of the Avebury World Heritage Site. This small museum is filled with fascinating artefacts that have been discovered through past excavations.

September & October: What's on:

Sculpture exhibition in Avebury Manor Garden

3 Sep - 9 Oct, 10am - 5pm, free with entry

Once again Avebury Manor Garden becomes an art gallery, with a variety of different artists displaying their work in the different garden rooms, much of the art will be on sale. On most Thursdays, art lovers will be able to chat to one of the artists.

Free Stone Circle tours

9 - 18 Sep, (subject to volunteer availability)

Our volunteer guides are experts in transporting you back to the Neolithic, as they explain the history of the stone circles and about the people who built Avebury. Sign up at visitor reception when you arrive. Free of charge as part of Heritage Open Days.

Heritage Open Day: free entry to Avebury Manor and museum

15 Sep, normal opening hours

For one day only, as part of Heritage Open Days, entry will be free of charge. This includes the Alexander Keiller Museum, Avebury Manor and Garden, and stone circle tours. Sign up at the visitor reception when you arrive.

Continued overleaf

Avebury landscape walks

Waden Hill: 10 Sep / East of Avebury: 1 Oct, both 1.30pm - 4pm, £8 per person

Both of these walks explore some of the most important Neolithic sites in Britain, and our knowledgeable volunteer guides will help unlock past of this intriguing landscape as you walk. Booking essential.

Autumn foraging walk

14 Sep, 11am—3.30pm, £50 per person, booking essential

Discover some of nature's wild food secrets on this half day foraging walk. Fred Gillam will teach you to identify plants growing in the hedgerows, fields and woods in the Avebury Landscape.

Trust 10

25 Sep and 23 Oct, 8.45am - 10.30am, free

The Trust10 is a 10k trail run across the wider Avebury landscape. It's a challenging run that takes in stunning views across this iconic and intriguing landscape. The run begins at 9 am, registration from 8.30am at the Coach House on Avebury High Street.

Apple Celebrations

15 and 16 Oct, 11am - 3pm, free with entry to Avebury Manor

It's apple season at Avebury with plenty of apple themed activities for all the family, including apple pressing and tasting using fruit from Avebury Manor's own orchard and some fun crafts for children.

Dark Skies

30 Oct, 4.30-6pm, £5 per adult, £3 per child

It's this time of year when we really start to appreciate the night sky again. Why not join us for a night walk at Avebury and learn about the night sky? Children can also join in with a fun craft activity (suitable for children 7+ years).

Looking ahead to Christmas

This Christmas at Avebury, we'll be telling the magical story of The Nutcracker with decorations in the manor as well as activities and festive cheer across the whole site.

For further information, text, expert quotes and photographs please contact:
Abby George at abby.george@nationaltrust.org.uk or 01672 538035.

If you'd like a press pass for one of these events please get in touch.